Mr. Thomas A. Davis today forwarded to Hon. M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture, his resignation as State Labor Inspector, effective
May 1st.

Mr. Davis was appointed to the of-

to continued ill health of members of his family and his inability to be absent from home, necessary in the proper discharge of the duties of the office.

seeing to the enforcement of the Child

A CARD.

The undersigned take this means of notifiing the public that they have pooled their race for County Clerk. An arrangement satisfactory to both has been entered into whereby W.
P. Dickson is to continue as a candidate, and in the event of his nomination and election, James Owens is to be his Chief Deputy. This action was deemed advisable by their friends
in view of recent combinations made by rival candidates for the office. Their personal regard for each other also makes this action
pleasant and desirable.

This April 29th, 1909.

JAMES OWENS,
W. P. DICKSON.

AN HONEST MAN

Though He Be a Hobo—Frustrates a Robbery By Yeggman

A one-armed man, who makes a precarious living by traveling over the country as best he can—beating his way on freight trains, generally—was the hero in the frustration of an attempted and partially successful robbery by yeggmen of the general store and Post-office at Myers Station on the line of the L. and N. the other night.

Weary Willie had spent some time in this city before beginning his tramp in rural parts, and when night spread its sable mantle around and about him he found himself at Myers Station footsore, tired and with no door open to bid him welcome in.

In the absence of a better place to rest his weary body he sought shelter and lodging underneath the platform fronting the store. Near midnight he was aroused from his fitful sleep by a suspicious noise in the store-room overhead. Suspecting something wrong he peeped out from his shelter and gathered the situation at a glance. He noted that while one Yeggman was robbing the store, another was on the platform as a lookout. Watching his chance he slipped out and beat it for the Station Agent's home, and informed Mr. Dale what was transpiring at the store. Mr. Dale armed himself and together they returned to the store to find the thieves making a hasty departure.

Dale fired at the retreating robbers, which caused them to move at a double-quick pace. They had secured two packages of money, one containing $50 and one $30.

In their flight and escape they dropped the $30 package, which was afterward found by Mr. Dale, being the receipts of the Postoffice. Had it not been for the timely intervention of the hobo, it is more than probable that the marauders would have set fire to the place in order to cover up their crime.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Ad dress, F. J. Already one can note the ray of gladness among the little folks of Maysville, caused by this announcement.

MUST BRIDGE STREETS

Railroads Can Be Forced to Build Overhead Crossings, Says Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, April 26th.—That a city can compel a railroad company to bridge its street crossings when the street has been established subsequent to the laying of the railroad tracks, just as it can when the tracks follow the laying out of the street, was in effect held by the Supreme Court of the United States today in deciding favorably to the city the case of the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railroad Company and the Great Northern Railway Company vs. the City of Minneapolis.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

Advice Against the Use of Harsh Purgatives and Physics

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action they force a passage through the bowels, causing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief. The repeated use of such treatments cause chronic irritation of the stomach and bowels, hardens their tissues, deadens their nerves, stiffens their muscles and generally brings about an injurious habit which sometimes has fatal results.

I have a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. I am so certain of its great curative value that I promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when it fails to produce entire satisfaction. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies. I urge you to try them at my entire risk.

Rexall Orderlies are very pleasant to take, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhea or any annoying effect, and they may be taken at any time without any inconvenience.

Rexall Orderlies overcome the drugging habit and cure constipation and all similar ailments, whether acute or chronic. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Price 36 tablets, 25c., and 12 tablets, 10c. Thos. J. Chenoweth, Druggist, corner Second and Sutton streets.

COX-WHEAT NUPTIALS.

Brilliant and Imposing Wedding Yesterday at the Church of the Nativity

Miss Roberta Stockton Cox Becomes the Bride of Rev. Clayton Earl Wheat of St. Louis, Mo.

Bathed in the sweet glory of a balmy April day, and with the gentle spring zephyrs wafting the delicious fragrance of millions of nature's earliest flowers, and all blessed by the genial rays of the warming sun as the crowning benediction, another one of Maysville's beautiful and accomplished daughters was led to the marriage altar by a manly son of Kentucky's daughter-State—Missouri.

This happy nuptial event was one of the most notable ever held in this city, and in point of prominence and social standing of the high contracting parties, and the gorgeousness of the preparations and the wedding gowns, no similar function has aroused more interest and attention.

The wedding was a mid-day function and the occasion was smiled upon by the radiant sun, which poured its genial effulgence upon the quaint old Cathedral-like building of the beautiful Church of the Nativity, where at high noon the ecclesiastical ceremonies were impressively performed by Right Reverend Lewis W. Burton, Bishop of the Diocese of Lexington, assisted by the Very Reverend Carroll M. Davis of Saint Louis, Mo., uniting in holy wedlock Miss Roberta Stockton Cox, only daughter of Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. William Hopkinson Cox, of Maysville, and the Reverend Clayton Earl Wheat, Assistant Rector of Christ Church Cathedral of Saint Louis, Missouri.

From 11:30 to 12 o'clock at the Church the following musical program, under the direction of Prof. A. J. Gantvoort, with Miss Chapman of Cincinnati as organist and a Quartette from the Cincinnati College of Music, was rendered—
Priest's March from Athalia Mendelssohn
Trauerrie Schuman
Chantes Seraphique Gilmour
O, Perfect Love (specially arranged) Mendelssohn
Lohengrin March for the Processional.
Recessional—Midsummer Night's Dream March

At 12 o'clock and immediately subsequent to the delightful organ recital, the bridal party arrived and formed in the guild room in the following order:

Matron of Honor—Mrs. Thomas Castleman Harry, Jr., of Dallas, Texas.

Maid of Honor—Miss Florence Fisher of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Bridesmaid—Miss Suesette Johnson of Mt. Sterling.

Best Man—Mr. George Wheat of Dallas, Texas.

Groomsmen—Mr. LeWright Browning of Maysville and Mr. John P. Cochran of Cleveland, Ohio.

Ushers—Mr. N. S. Calhoun of Maysville and Mr. Shelby Blatterman of Mayslick.

Crossbearer—Master Wadsworth Clarke of Maysville.

Very Reverend Carroll M. Davis of Christ Church Cathedral of St. Louis, Mo.

The Right Reverend Lewis W. Burton of Lexington, Ky., and the Quartette, groom and best man.

Bishop Burton and Dean Davis stopped at the altar, while the party marched down the main aisle of the Church, meeting the bride and her father at the door of the Church.

After the ceremony, which was very beautifully and impressively spoken by the Bishop, the bridal party left the Church in reverse order and returned to the residence, where an elegant wedding feast was partaken of by a select number of especially invited guests.

Ropes of white satin ribbon were stretched the entire length of the Church along both sides of the central aisle, down which the imposing nuptial party marched. The ceremony and details were in "the old Cathedral style," making the wedding quite novel and very beautiful.

A thousand invitations were issued to the wedding, and the favors were distributed over nearly every State in the Union.

The festal reception at the Cox home at 1 p. m. was the crowning feature of the sumptuous event.

The costumes of the bridal party were of Colonial style, carrying out the silver and green color scheme. The Matron of Honor wore a silver satin coat over a skirt of white and silver net; the Maid of Honor, pompadour coat over a white net skirt, and the Bridesmaid, a green satin coat, with light green net dress, trimmed in silver. The party all wore big picture hats trimmed in green and silver, and carried white chiffon muffs, trimmed with silver butterflies and green.

The wedding gown of the bride was an ivory satin meteor, Court train; the bodice was of rose point lace, with hand embroidered roses and fringe of tulle and orange blossoms. The veil was of tulle and hung from a coronet of orange blossoms, the whole a most beautiful creation of Miss Hannan of Louisville. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white lilacs and valley lilies.

The men wore the conventional frock coats and carried their hats.

The following out-of-town guests were present:

Mrs. John G. South, Frankfort, Ky.
Mrs. W. G. Lewis, Dallas, Texas.
Mr. and Mrs. Shelby M. Blatterman, Mayslick.

Miss Elizabeth Davis, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fisher, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Letitia Cist, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Miss Julia Graves, Winchester, Ky.
Miss Calloway Squires, Winchester, Ky.
Miss Frances Frazee, Lexington, Ky.
Miss Reese Wheat, Dallas, Texas.
Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Regenstein, Newport, Ky.

Judge and Mrs. Milton Durham, Lexington, Ky.
Allison Holland, Lexington, Ky.
Dean C. M. Davis, St. Louis, Mo.

Bishop Lewis W. Burton, Lexington, Ky.
Hon. McKenzie Todd, Governor Willson's Secretary, Frankfort, Ky.

Hon. R. G. Elliott, Lexington, Ky.
Dr. M. L. Herdingsfeld, Cincinnati.
Albert Sleet, Versailles, Ky.
Senator B. C. Grigsby, Lewis county.

The bridal couple left yesterday afternoon on the 3:15 C. and O. train to spend their honeymoon in the Ozark Mountains in Missouri.

Hardesty of Cincinnati was the decorator and the interior of the pretty little Church was a dream of lights, flowers, foliage and handsomely gowned women.

Solger of Louisville was the caterer.

The presents were too numerous to specify, the most substantial being a very generous check to the bride from her devoted parents and a solid silver tea set from Governor Willson and the other members of the State Administration at Frankfort.

Owing to the serious accident recently to Governor and Mrs. Augustus E. Willson, they were both unable to be present. They sent letters of cordial congratulations and expressed regrets at their inability to attend.

Taken as a whole, the nuptials, in all its details, was one of the prettiest and most pleasingly gorgeous spectacles ever seen in this city.

The bride, an only daughter, petted, traveled and accomplished, is tall, spirituelle and statuesque and the type of beauty much sought after by the artist. She is a native of Maysville and a true bred daughter of old Kentucky. At Frankfort, at Washington City and in European cities she was feted, toasted and the cynosure of society everywhere. She is the scion of a pioneer Maysville merchant who made an honorable name and a handsome fortune as a worthy heritage to his posterity.

The Reverend bridegroom, who has won as his life mate such a prize, is also a Kentuckian, a Texan by long residence, his parents now living at Houston. He is one of the rising young Rectors in the Protestant Episcopal Church, at present being Assistant Rector of Christ Church Cathedral in St. Louis. He is quite tall, and, although youthful in appearance, his physiognomy shows amiability, dignity and strength, and all unite in the belief and the hope that they will and have blessed each other with a perfect union of hand, heart and soul during all their lives.

There is precious instruction to be got by finding we are wrong.—Carlyle.

In the County Court J. Edward Parker produced and filed his inventory and appraisal of the personal property of Isaac Peggs, deceased.

Gulick says most pertinently on the subject of fatigue: "When a man is exhausted he finds it difficult to be patient. His self-control is at low ebb. The smallest annoyances are sufficient to make him lose his temper.  Many temptations are harder to resist when he is fatigued. His moral sense is dulled. He loses the vividness between right and wrong, honesty and dishonesty.  Bodily vigor is a moral agent. It enables us to live on a higher level, to keep up to the top of our achievement."
